

State of Michigan Compulsory School Attendance Law

SSEC. 1561. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section a child's parent, guardian, or other person in this state having control and charge of the child shall send the child to public school during the entire school year from the age of 6 to the child's eighteenth birthday. The child's attendance shall be continuous and consecutive for the school year fixed by the school district in which the child is enrolled. In a school district that maintains school during the entire calendar year and in which the school year is divided into quarters, a child is not required to attend the public school more than 3 quarters in one calendar year, but the child shall not be absent for two or more consecutive quarters. Michigan Compiled Laws Section 380.1561 (1).

SEC. 732. In the following cases, children shall not be required to attend public schools: (a) Any child who is attending regularly and is being taught in a private, parochial, or denominational school which has complied with all the provisions of this act and teaches subjects comparable to those taught in the public schools of children corresponding in age and grade, as determined by the course of study for the public school of the district within which such private, parochial, or denominational school is located.

SEC. 1571. (3) An Attendance Officer of an intermediate school district or a local school district shall have the powers of a deputy sheriff within the district or intermediate school district while performing official duties. Michigan Compiled Laws Section 380.1571 (3).

SEC. 1586. (2) If a child is repeatedly absent from school without valid excuse, or is failing in schoolwork, or gives evidence of behavioral problems, and attempts to confer with the parent or other person in parental relationship to the child fail, the superintendent of schools, or the intermediate superintendent in a district which does not employ a superintendent, may request the attendance officer to notify the parent or other person in parental relationship by registered mail to come to the school or to a place designated at a specified time to discuss the irregularity in attendance, failing work, or behavioral problems with the proper school authorities.

SEC. 1587. If a parent or other person in parental relation fails to send a child under his or her control to the public school or other school listed under section 1561, the attendance officer, upon receiving notice from proper authority to that fact, shall give written notice in person or by registered mail to the parent or other person in parental relation requiring the child to appear at the public school or other school on the next regular school day following the receipt of notice, and to continue in regular and consecutive attendance in school. The attendance officer shall notify the intermediate superintendent or superintendent of schools of the service of notice. The intermediate superintendent or superintendent shall notify the attendance officer of the failure on the part of the parent or other person in parental relation to comply with the notice. History: 1976, Act 451, Imd. Eff. Jan 13, 1977

SEC. 1588. The attendance officer, after giving formal notice prescribed in Section 1587, shall determine whether the parent or other person in parental relation has complied with the notice. The attendance officer shall make a complaint against the parent or other person in parental relation having the legal charge and control of the child who fails to comply with the Court having jurisdiction in the county of residence for refusal and neglect to send the child to school. The Court shall issue a warrant upon the complaint and shall proceed to hear and determine it in the same manner as is provided for other cases under its jurisdiction. Michigan Compiled Laws Section 380.1588.

SEC. 1599. A parent or other person in parental relation who fails to comply with this part is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not less than $5.00 nor more than $50.00, or imprisonment for not less than 2 nor more than 90 days or both. Michigan Compiled Law Section 380.1599
